

JAMINA COLE

Development Manager

Jamina is the latest addition to the Horizon Theatre family, joining in June 2009. She attended California Institute of the Arts where she earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre, and was also named an Artistic Merit Scholar for the Savannah College of Art and Design (Performance and Media/Directing). Pryor to living in Atlanta, she worked with several Los Angeles theatre companies in various production capacities, including Playwrights' Arena and The Actors' Co-op, and has travelled internationally to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Jamina previously worked as Marketing and Development Associate at Georgia Ensemble Theatre, but recently took time off professionally to be with her beautiful little girl, Zoe.