

VICTORIA SMITH

Box Office Manager

On January 5, 1984 at 7:02PM, the only girl was born at the Bad Cannstatt hospital to George and Carrie Anne Smith in Stuttgart, Germany. The two drill sergeants had no idea that they were producing a natural born leader in their own right. As a child, I was always quiet and shy, but vary focused on academics. My parents and I frequently went on family outings to the movies. Through them and my sister's love of black and white films, I began my love affair with the arts. In fifth grade, I decided that I wanted to become an actor. On my typewriter, I began to write every major television and cable company sharing my dream to act. Through drama and music classes, I became exposed to theatre throughout my educational career.

In 2002, I was accepted to Spelman College here in Atlanta, Georgia. At Spelman, I became a renaissance woman in theatre. I held every position from actor to technical director. The drama department was not just a foundation for learning, but also a second home with a loving family. In 2006, I graduated magna cum laude with a B.A in theatre and a minor in economics.

Currently, I am the box office coordinator at Horizon Theatre Company. At Horizon, I have been blessed to learn how a professional theatre company operates. In 2007-2008, I was a member of the first apprentice company at Horizon Theatre.
